Hillary currently works in the Performance Improvement segment of FirstEnergy Utilities, where she is responsible for initiatives that seek to improve both the customer and employee experience and promote safety, reliability, and cost-effective service.

Hillary is passionate about serving Greater Akron. She currently serves as the 2018 President of Torchbearers and serves on the Board of Directors for South Street Ministries and Summit Artspace.

Hillary earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and a Master of Arts in Economics from the University of Akron. She currently resides in North Hill with her husband Neil. They have two rescue dogs, Cinder and Swarley. In her free time, Hillary can often be found cooking, meeting with friends in her favorite Akron places, and reading nerdy books about economics.
