Jon Fiume currently serves as the Chief Operating Officer of Mustard Seed Market and Café. Mustard Seed Market and Café currently has locations in the Montrose area of Akron, Highland Square, Akron and in the Cleveland suburb of Solon. Mustard Seed Market and Café is a full line natural and organic grocery store specializing in produce, meat, dairy, wine, and general grocery products, as well as vitamins, herbs, homeopathics, and natural health and beauty products. In addition, Mustard Seed Market and Café offers a deli, restaurant and catering services.

Jon spends much of his free time supporting numerous community organizations including sitting on the boards of Stan Hywet, ArtsNow, and Leadership Akron. In addition, he is a proud graduate of Leadership Akron Class XXII and a 2006 recipient of Crain's Cleveland Forty under 40.

Jon graduated from John Carroll University, Cleveland, Ohio with a degree in Spanish and a minor in marketing. He also holds a state of Ohio medical board license to practice massage therapy.

Relaxation time for Jon includes traveling and many physical activities such as running, weight training, Pilates, Barre, and tennis. In addition, he enjoys the world of wines and enjoying healthy, nutritious food with friends.
